GEPS is
Happiness Headquarters!
Did you know that our school runs a lunchtime club called Happiness HQs? It’s a space where students can go to relax, play, talk, share, meet other kids at lunchtime—away from the hustle and bustle of the playground.
Run by Ms White, with support from Ms Lawson, it looks like Tuesday is happiness day at GEPS!

Here are some photos of the 3-6 students enjoying playing and connecting this week...

1/2S are exploring why and how artists create artworks!

We started by looking at Ken Done’s self portrait called Me, looking at the colours and symbols he chose to represent himself. We then created our own Me portraits – here are some of them!

Our Me artworks in progress! We had to spend lots of time thinking about the colours and symbols we would chose!
